RCC's Annual Pie/Dessert Auction

Our annual Pie and Dessert Auction is here! That's right – stick around after the service today for all the fun. Enjoy some lunch and buy some yummy dessert! Proceeds from this auction go toward helping our kids and teens pay for summer camp.

UGM Ladies Auxiliary Brunch

May 21st

Don't forget, the Union Gospel Mission's Ladies Auxiliary's annual brunch is tomorrow. See Mary Gustafson for more details. This month's meeting focus is UGM Kid's Camp. They will be collecting items for kids to use at camp: flip flops, towels, sunscreen, etc. A collection basket is in the foyer!

Camp on the installment plan?

That's right – spread out the cost for your student's camp experience this year by paying a little bit each week.

Simply put the money in an offering envelope marked with your child's name and camp. See Karin Jones or Jamie Foos for more details.

Don't have cash? Use Easy Tithe instead, just notate your child's name and camp when you donate through the app!

Saturday June 16th at 3pm

For Kim Dunlap and Crystal Becker!

The them is Sprinkles, and we want to "sprinkle" them with all the things they need for their baby boys. See Jamie Foos for more details.

The Camp Altar

This is the time of year when we celebrate kid's camps and youth camps. Camp is a total experience designed to build powerful, lasting memories...and have a lot of fun!

The most significant part of camp is the chapel gatherings. In these special gatherings there is family-style fellowship, dynamic music, and anointed preaching. There is, however, one central transforming experience from these meetings that cannot be replaced: the life-changing experience with God at the altar.

Camp is not just a summer activity; it's an opportunity for kids to encounter God in a way that can change the course of their entire life.

The Camp Altar, Continued:

Both Kid's Camp and Youth Camp each have:

- Uplifting worship
- Life-changing messages
- Filled altars with a chance to hear God's voice

There is biblical background (especially in Old Testament examples) for seeking a new walk with God at the altar. Many memorable and significant spiritual experiences in Scripture happened at an altar of worship and sacrifice. Noah marked his new covenant with God by sacrificing at an altar (Genesis 8.20). Abraham's spiritual journey was signified by his altar experiences. In every life situation, Abraham built an altar and lived out an altar experience that carried him through life's changes and challenges (Genesis 12.8; 13.1-4; 22.9).

Abraham's example carried into the next generations in the altar experiences of his son and grandson. The same God who had appeared to Abraham also appeared to his son, Isaac, at Beersheba and also gave him wonderful promises. The result was, "Isaac built an altar there and called on the name of the Lord" (Genesis 26.25). The spiritual vitality and life success in the families of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob were based in their experiences at the family altar.

The camping ministry recognizes the central importance of the altar experience. All that is planned and lead is meant to culminate in an encounter with God at the altar.

There is a special and unique "altar DNA" that underscores the camp experience. While anointed singing and preaching are highly valued, they are not the goals of worship; they are a means to the desired end — an encounter with God at the altar. It is in the altar that souls are saved, students called into vocational ministry, the sick are healed, and seekers are baptized in the Holy Spirit. Whether these altar calls are noisy and dynamic, or somber and tearful, those who witness and participate in this spiritual worship walk away from the altar deeply moved and inwardly transformed. Camp worship is not simply enthusiasm, neither is it entertainment — it is an evangelistic encounter with God's holy presence.

Thank you for supporting our students toward attending camp,

Pastor Eddie Foos
