

Welcome to Ridgeview!

EDDIE FOOS | Lead Pastor

Our lead pastors, Eddie and Jamie Foos have a heart to reach our city and beyond with the life transforming message of Jesus. They believe in the next generation and value both the wisdom and guidance of those that have gone before us.

Preparing for worship:

In the bible, the word "If" shows up 1,784 times. If God put it there so many times, I think it's worthy of our attention. God places the "ifs" in our lives to give us an opportunity to live them out as His awesome possibilities. So no more regrets. There is a life filled with "what ifs" just waiting for us to conquer. God goes before us; He will guide us through! If God is for us, then who can be against us? Let's step out and live out the God possibilities in our lives! You are loved by Him and me.

– Pastor Eddie.

Celebrating the Reformation

Did you know that October 2017 marks the 500th year since Martin Luther published his 95 theses against the Catholic Church, thus paving a way for the Protestant Reformation? The Reformation didn't just change how the Church operated, it dramatically altered the way people thought about God. Practically overnight, concepts like faith, grace, and salvation suddenly took on whole new meanings.

When Luther began his training as a monk, the Catholic Church was already a massive presence throughout Europe. Church attendance was high, and lay leaders played a key role in their community. However, despite a healthy outward appearance, most Christians had very little idea of what they believed. Biblical scholarship was limited to the clergy, and an individual's connection with God could be taken away if someone with enough spiritual credentials declared it so. Luther's reformation changed everything with a loud and bold declaration: salvation comes from God alone!

This may seem pretty basic to us but at the time it was a startling revelation. The Reformation is still relevant today; it was the Reformation that introduced Christians to the five "solos" of theology; sola scriptura (scripture alone), sola fide (faith alone), sola gratia (grace alone), solus Christus (Christ alone), or soli Deo gloria (to the glory of God alone).

This means that our being made alive in Christ is by grace alone; on the basis of Christ alone; received through faith alone; so that all things lead ultimately to the glory of God alone; with Scripture alone as the final, decisive authority for discerning, teaching, and defending those truths.

"The word grace implies free gift — not earned, not merited, not deserved — which means that our new birth was God's free gift to us. We did not make it happen. We were dead. Our new life, our desire, our ability to believe and love, is all of grace, which is exactly what Paul says in Ephesians 2:5

It can be hard for ordinary Christians to unpack the spiritual and theological weight of the Reformation. Luther's work had a ripple-effect which is still being felt throughout the world today. However, we can be grateful that our Heavenly Father loved us enough to send his Son to die for us (John 3:16). We can be thankful that our salvation is not based on our own works, but by the grace of God (Ephesians 2:8-9). Most of all, we can rest easy knowing our hope is in the risen promise of Jesus Christ (1 Peter 5:7).

So this October 31st, amidst the chaos and colors of Halloween, be sure to take a moment and remember the importance of this 500th Reformation Day.
