EDDIE FOOS | Lead Pastor

Our lead pastors, Eddie and Jamie Foos, have a heart to reach our city and beyond with the life transforming message of Jesus. They believe in the next generation and value both the wisdom and guidance of those that have gone before us.

We're starting off the new year with a shiny new Facebook page! That's right folks, if you are part of the RCC family and enjoy interacting with us on social media, we invite you to update your old Facebook link so that it points to our new page and we'll see you there:

RCC Reads Through the Bible 2019

Why Read the Bible?

God's Word is alive! The more you expose yourself to it, the more it will expose itself to you.

To know God better you must spend time hearing what He has to say. The Bible is His message to you. If you want Him to listen to what you have to say, you should also listen to what He has to say.

Although God can also speak directly to your heart, you need to know His written Word so you can judge whether God is speaking to you, or the enemy is trying to deceive you.

God will not love you more because you read the Bible. It's for your benefit — not required to make God love you. However, without reading the Bible, you will not grow spiritually, and you will be more easily deceived.

Prayerfully reading the Scriptures yourself is the only real defense against being misled.

God's Word is truth (John 17:17).

Don't you want to know the truth? Why waste your time on lesser, unreliable things?

Your spiritual life is important. You always have time for what you consider important.
